

P r e s s r e l e a s e

21st september 1999

w w w . t h e j a m . o r g

Blue Monday

Woking band Blue Monday have signed to play a support role at The Jam Web Site launch at the HG Wells Suite in Woking on Thursday 7th October 1999.

The event, which is being supported by Woking Borough Council, is being headlined by Europe's top Tribute band, The Jamm, and starts at 7.30pm. It is an all ticket affair.

Blue Monday have impressed the organisers with their mixture of R & B and Indie sound, and are signed as the only support band. They will be playing 8 songs, 4 covers and 4 of their own original tunes. They are being tipped as the next big Woking Band.

Blue Monday consists of 17 year old Guitarist/Singer Peter McGinty, Drummer John Allen, Bassist/keyboards' Nick Barlow and Guitarist Mike Duncan. All four were born in and have lived all their lives in Woking. They currently attend St. John the Baptist 6th Form & Godalming College.

Tickets are available now at the box office in Woking on 01483 761144. Fans from all over the world have already secured the early tickets. Numbers are obviously limited.

Further Blue Monday gigs are lined up at:

The Cricketers, Westfield on Friday 24th September Tel: 01483 761409

The Fahrenheit & Firkin, Woking Town Centre on Friday 1st October Tel: 01483 714162

They have their first big London Gig arranged in October at the famous Kings Head in Fulham Tel: 0171 736 1413